Be Determined

Blessed is the man...whose confidence is in God Jer 17:7

It takes courage to be led by God! It is not easy to break out of the mold and rise above the limits others place on you. When you do, you'll face disapproval. Jesus did! When the folks He grew up around said, "isn't this the carpenter's son?" they were really saying, "He should stay in His place!" When they tell you that, don't listen. In the end you will discover that not only is it wrong to be judgmental of others, it is also wrong to permit their opinions to control you. To follow God's leading, you must have confidence that: He love you in spite of your shortcomings; He has a definite plan for your life; You are capable of hearing from Him for yourself; whatever He asks of you, He will enable you to do. Once you've heard from God, be resolute! Things worth having never come easy. Stick with what God tells you. Don't go in a different direction because of worry, discouragement or the sentiments of others. Remind yourself that you have what it takes to succeed in whatever God has called you to do. If you've made Jesus the Lord of your life, His determination lives in you-because HE lives in you.

The Nellie Project

Nellie is an 87 year old woman, with very bad eyesight. Her caregiver stole all her money and then backed a truck up to the house and stole all her stuff, down to the silverware and dishes - ALL OF IT. They left her sitting on a broken recliner chair in a dark laundry room and drove off. So the Water ministries jumped in and over 50 volunteers showed up on February 19 to clean, paint, do yard work, wash windows, etc.

Thanks to everyone who turned a bad situation into a great opportunity to make a statement for God.
