Patty Pollatos Fund, Inc. is an independent and non-sectarian 501(c)(3) and community-based non-profit that operates with an all-volunteer workforce to educate and assist local families and individuals in Maryland about economic opportunities, raise funds and assist in raising funds for families during the temporary financial strain caused by cancer, spinal cord injuries, heart, liver or kidney transplants, and other ailments. PPF, Inc. stands in the gap for other non-profit organizations in their hour of need, while also providing assistance, as needed, with national disasters.
