Volume 3 Issue 2

There are two days in the week upon which and about which I never worry -- two carefree days kept sacredly free from fear and apprehension. One of these days is Yesterday. Yesterday, with its cares and frets and pains and aches, all its faults, its mistakes and blunders, has passed forever beyond my recall. It was mine; it is God's.

The other day that I do not worry about is Tomorrow. Tomorrow, with all its possible adversities, its burdens, its perils, its large promise and performance, its failures and mistakes, is as far beyond my mastery as its dead sister, Yesterday. Tomorrow is God's day; it will be mine.

There is left, then, for myself but one day in the week - Today. Any man can fight the battles of today. Any woman can carry the burdens of just one day; any man can resist the temptation of today. It is only when we willfully add the burdens of these two awful eternities - Yesterday and Tomorrow - such burdens as only the Mighty God can sustain - that we break down.

It isn't the experience of Today that drives men mad. It is the remorse of what happened Yesterday and fear of what Tomorrow might bring. These are God's Days ... Leave them to Him.

Why are you involved with the Waterboyz?

- It is what Jesus called me to do... The accountability helps me to stay in the Word and focused on the right choices! To serve others is an amazing feeling!

Gaithersburg Service Project

Jeff Beatty found a need and the Waterboyz led 92 men, women and children in filling it. By renovating the home of a widow with three children, Christian love was shared. Although intended as a "face-lift", thanks to all of the help and the local businesses that contributed goods and services, not only was there a thorough cleaning, but repairs were made and carpeting was replaced. Sincere thanks to all who participated in living out James 1:27

" Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress. "
